Summer Newsletter No.1

19th April 2017

Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back. I hope you all had a restful break and enjoyed time with your families. The summer term promises to be a busy and exciting one for all the children. Alongside all the normal learning activities Year 2 children will complete their National Assessment tasks and Year 1 will complete their Phonics screening check this term.

Kind regards
Miss K Aldred

Summer Uniform

As we are now entering the summer term can I remind you of the uniform that the children should wear:

Girls - Red/White gingham dress with white socks or grey skirt/pinafore with white polo top and red school logo cardigan/sweatshirt and polished black school shoes/closed toe sandals.

Boys - Grey trousers/shorts with white polo top and red school logo sweatshirt and polished black school shoes with grey sock/closed toe sandals.

Welly Boots Urgently Needed!

Our allotment is coming along very nicely with potatoes, peas and strawberries now growing. My next plan involves growing some crops inside welly boots! If you have any child size welly boots that you no longer require I would be very grateful to receive them.

FOBSA

The next FOBSA planning meeting will be held on Wednesday 26th April (Venue tbc) at 7.00pm
Please do come along if you are able to

Holidays

A reminder that holiday requests in term time, unless in exceptional circumstances will not be authorised and could lead to a penalty notice. Please refer to our attendance policy on the school website for further details.
