Summer Newsletter No. 1

17th April 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back to the Summer term, hopefully the more clement summer weather will join us soon!

You will find details below of our staff led club offer this term. These clubs are always popular and whilst this term all children are welcome to apply for a place, we do ask that if your child had a turn in a similar club this year, please do not request a place again, this term. This should allow those children that missed out previously, a chance to experience a club.

I hope you enjoy a restful weekend.

They will be meeting in the village square at 09.30 and in exchange for an hour's work, you will receive a bacon roll and coffee! All kit will be provided and families are very welcome. After the litter pick the church is hosting a free talk by Surrey County Council on heating options and help for energy costs which might also be of interest.
